

Minutes 10/16/14

Tracy Fish opened the meeting with 19 attendees including 2 guests.

The first speaker was Thomas Schafer, Senior Stakeholder Liaison with the IRS and spoke on Employment Tax and Social Security Policy Changes.

Tracy Fish opened the business meeting.

Minutes were not available for the August meeting at this time and will be voted on at the December meeting.

The Treasurers Report was motioned for approval by Ann Fink and seconded by Bonnie Jones. All were in favor and none were opposed.

A Conference update was provided. The attendees have reached the 200 mark and we increased the amount of pins ordered by the chapter to 240 as we were still way under the budgeted amount for that item. The Conference Committee had requested a fee increase from the original $300 to $500 to account for the increase in prices and number of attendees for the sponsored breaks. A motion to approve this payment was made by Nancy Sousa and seconded by Pam Williams. All were in favor and none were opposed.

Kelvin Byrd from Sonoco Products obtained his CPP certification.

Only 2 Payroll Person of the Year nominations have been received and the voting will take place this week.

Next Meeting is at the City of Cayce hosted by JoAn Roland. Lunch will be provided as stated in the budget. RSVP's are requested ASAP for this meeting so that food can be ordered a head of the meeting. JoAn Roland will look into getting food from Substation II as we did last year. Voting for officers and committee members will be made at this meeting. Almost all positions will be available for new volunteers. The duties list will be made available on the website and December Chatterbox. Please also be thinking about hosting a meeting in 2015 as we will be looking for locations at this meeting.

Second Speaker for the day was Andrew Rider of MUSC and spoke on International Payroll.

Door Prizes were won by Sheila Martinez, Susan Bishop, and Bonnie Jones.

50/50 Drawing was for $15.00 by Bonnie Jones.

Third speaker for the day was Paula Twigg of Robert Half Finance & Accounting and spoke on How to Navigate Office Politics.
